Tay Township publishes 2018 Budget Overview

Tay, Ontario: Tay Township released an overview of its 2018 Preliminary Operating and Capital Budget, which was adopted at tonight's Council meeting for implementation in January.

The four-page document includes the budget process, breakdown of the $16.5 million operating and $22.1 million capital budgets, overview of 14 projects scheduled for 2018, and breakdown of services for your tax dollars.

"The publishing of the 2018 Budget Overview furthers Council's commitment to achieving open and effective communication between the municipality and the residents of Tay," said Mayor Scott Warnock, "with an objective to increase local awareness, interest and transparency around key issues impacting the future of our municipality."

Tay Township will continue to publish a Budget Overview each year, which will help highlight year-over-year changes along with the fiscal challenges faced by the Township.

Download the 2018 Budget Overview at tay.ca/budgetoverview and mark your calendar for the Final Budget meeting scheduled for Wednesday, April 11 at 10 a.m. in the Council Chamber (450 Park Street, Victoria Harbour).

Tay Township is committed to delivering responsive and cost-effective municipal services and infrastructure that provide for the long-term economic, social and environmental well-being of its residents and community.
